

Top 10 Ways To Support The Humanist Foundation Without Writing A Check!!!

1. Bequest in a Will – You can ensure the continuation of your support of the AHA in perpetuity by “endowing” your gifts through a bequest to The Humanist Foundation.
2. Gift Annuity – You can give cash or stock and receive a guaranteed, favorably taxed income for life – plus a deduction.
3. Appreciated Stock or Mutual Fund Shares – You avoid capital gains tax and can deduct the full fair market value for shares held more than one year.
4. Living Trust – Placing property that you wish to give away in a Living Trust with The Humanist Foundation can be convenient and simplify the settling of your estate. You continue to manage and control the property.
5. Charitable Remainder Trust – You can receive income for life from gift assets as well as an immediate income tax deduction.
6. Charitable Lead Trust – Gift tax and estate tax savings are possible from trusts that pay income to The Humanist Foundation for a set number of years and then distribute assets to family members as you direct.
7. Life Insurance – You can give The Humanist Foundation a policy or name it as a total or partial beneficiary of your life insurance.
8. Real Estate – A gift of your home or other property can make an excellent gift. You can even reserve the right to live in the property for your lifetime.
9. Retirement Accounts, U.S. Savings Bonds – If The Humanist Foundation is named the death beneficiary of an IRA or receives bonds through a will or trust, income taxes are avoided and the value also qualifies for an estate tax deduction.
10. Payable on Death – with CD’s, brokerage accounts, etc. You can file a form with your bank or other institution making The Humanist Foundation the recipient of any remaining funds at your death.

For more information contact:

J. Rodger Clark

Director of Planned Giving

P.O. Box 352, Davidson, NC 28036-0352 • 704.351.9564

American Humanist Association, 1821 Jefferson Place NW, Washington, DC 20036

www.AmericanHumanist.org/Foundation